

Position: Nursery Horticulturist

Department: Horticulture

Status: Non – Exempt, Full – Time, 40 hours weekly

Reports to: Director of Horticulture and Gardens Operations

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Nursery Horticulturist is responsible for supporting and coordinating plant propagation needs for all sections of Descanso Gardens, including the Display, Rose, and Camellia and Native gardens. This position requires skill in scheduling, propagating and maintaining a wide variety of plant material in a nursery setting. The position requires the maintenance and operation of greenhouse, cold frame, shade house and nursery beds. The position requires the ability to produce seasonably appropriate plants in a timely manner through a variety of propagation methods including seed, division, and cuttings and grafting. Candidates should possess the knowledge necessary to propagate plants across the spectrum of Descanso Gardens collections, including camellias, lilacs, cycads, California natives, vegetables and fruits, roses, Australian and other drought tolerant plants, and a wide array of ornamental annuals and perennials. The Nursery Horticulturist will be responsible for maintaining the genetic heritage of plants historically developed at Descanso. The candidate for this position must possess the ability to work cooperatively with all horticulture sections at the Gardens and works integrally with the Garden Records Coordinator. The position supports an array of activities conducted by the Education department, including integral support of the Education Programs Coordinator in the Harvest Garden. This position requires the candidate to direct a large volunteer workforce weekly and occasional weekend workshops and volunteer events.
